Hello everyone!

I hope that summer 2009 is treating you well. I know the weather has been a little unpredictable but hopefully you are finding ways to make it memorable with family and friends.

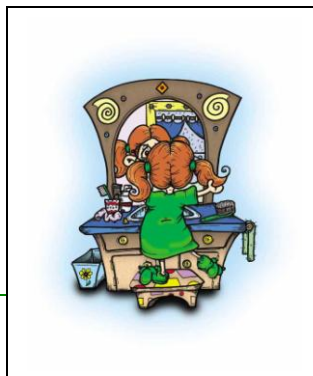

It looks like I won't be getting any camping in this summer, but in honour of my love for the outdoors, a picture for you to colour has been added to this newsletter.

Have a wonderful time!
Don't forget the sunscreen!
